FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

KANSAS CITY, MO — Alpha Gamma Rho Fraternity is proud to announce the election of Undergraduate Directors to its National Board of Directors. The 2005-2006 Undergraduate Directors are Joshua Smitherman, Auburn University; Ben Wicker, Purdue University; Ryan Betka, University of Nebraska-Lincoln; and Brandon Griggs, Tarleton State University.

Ryan Betka is a junior at the University of Nebraska-Lincoln majoring in Agribusiness and Finance. Ryan is the VNR Scholarship officer and has served as First VNR, VNR Recruitment and Public Relations officer for the Kappa Chapter of the fraternity. On campus he is the Agribusiness club Community Service Chair and serves on the College of Business Student Advisory Board.

Ryan is active with the Nebraska Pork Mentor Program. Ryan hopes to serve as an agricultural loan officer in the future.

Alpha Gamma Rho is the National Agricultural Fraternity with 67 Chapters. Membership exceeds 59,000 men in 50 states and 54 countries. The fraternity's goal is to make better men and to promote the increasingly important and versatile field of agriculture.
