Educational Foundation of Alpha Gamma Rho

The Educational Foundation (the Foundation) of Alpha Gamma Rho is a not-for-profit corporation funded by voluntary contributions and investment income. The business purpose of the Foundation is to receive and invest contributed property and to distribute such property to qualifying organizations or persons for charitable, religious, educational or scientific purposes.

These charitable, religious, educational, and scientific purposes, include, for such purposes, the making of distributions to organizations that qualify as exempt organizations under Section 501(c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 (or the corresponding provisions of any future United States Internal Revenue Law).

To receive money or property by gift, devise or bequest, and to hold, manage, sell, invest and reinvest, use, operate, devote, and expend such money or property and the proceeds, and the income thereof for the study, experimentation, research, and advancement of agriculture, horticulture, animal husbandry and other professions or areas of endeavor related thereto;

To aid and assist needy and deserving students in their efforts to secure a better education by scholarships, loans and/or grants; and

To promote and encourage scientific, philosophic and literary endeavor.

Beneficiaries are college students and they are selected based on scholastic and leadership achievement and need.

Organized in 1965, The Educational Foundation of Alpha Gamma Rho operates as a tax-exempt, not-for-profit 501 (c) (3) corporation and public charity under the laws of the State of Illinois. The employer identification number is 36-6158409.
